

1. What public, classified or secret Regulations, Orders-in-Council, Cabinet Directives or other documents of any kind whatsoever deal with the matter of personnel security clearance in the Public Service of Canada?

2. (a) What criteria are applied in determining whether a group, a member of a group or an individual constitutes a security risk (b) are decisions designating as a security risk a group, a member of a group or an individual usually made by individual departmental security officers, usually junior officials, on delegation by the deputy minister?

3. (a) What appeal procedure is available to a group, a member of a group or an individual designated a security risk (b) is such group, member of a group or the individual so designated fully informed of the decision that he, she, they or it constitute a security risk (c) is an opportunity afforded to refute any charges, assertions or accusations made against such group, member of a group or individual (d) what variations exist in standards and procedures as between departments and/or agencies of the government?

4. (a) Are suspected or alleged homosexuality, sexual abnormality or emotional instability considered sufficient grounds to categorize an individual as a security risk (b) is suspected or alleged financial difficulties considered sufficient grounds to categorize an individual as a security risk (c) who makes such decisions in the case of each department and agency of government (d) at or in what forum, if any, are such decisions made (e) on what and whose evidence are such decisions made (f) who or what agency gathers, compiles, investigates, controls and/or releases information that a group, member of a group or an individual is designated a security risk and, in each case, on whose authority (g) does the Police and Security Planning and Analysis Group through its role on the security advisory committee maintain a system or a policy of "blackballing" public servants and, if so, on what grounds (h) does the Police and Security Planning and Analysis Group maintain dossiers or files of information on public servants?

5. (a) What is Cabinet Directive 35 and when was it passed and/or authorized and by whom (b) is Cabinet Directive 35 still in force in its original form and, if not, in what manner and to what extent has it been altered, revised or extended?

6. (a) What are the names of the members of the Interdepartmental Security and Intelligence Committee and what is the name of the immediate superior of each (b) what are the names of the members of the Security Advisory Committee and what is the name of the immediate superior of each (c) what are the names of the members of the Intelligence Advisory Committee and what is the name of the immediate superior of each (d) are each of the Committees described in (a), (b) and be covered by general statement on government security policy - refer to Mr. Pearson's statement of 1963 and Royal Commission Report.

Questions 1 - 6

RESPONSIBILITY

PCO
Solicitor General
RCMP Security Service

EXCEPTION

4(g) No.
(h) No.

005820

(c) composed exclusively of public servants and, if not, which of the members of each such committee are not public servants, and, in each case, what are their names, occupations and principal place of residence (e) do the committees described in (a), (b) and (c) or any of them make recommendations or decisions as to the political loyalties of a group, member of a group or an individual or as to whether such group, member of a group or individual is a security risk and, if so, on what authority and at whose request, if any, in each instance (f) what are the names of the members of the staff, their respective salaries and duties of each of the committees described in (a), (b) and (c) and what funds are available to each such committee?

7(a) What is, or was, the "Groupe Vidal" in the Federal-Provincial relations branch of the Privy Council office and what is, or was its role in informing the government of the Province of Quebec with respect to federal matters (b) were or are investigations, reports, memoranda or other documents of the RCMP or the Police and Security Planning and Analysis Group or the former Security Planning and Research Group forwarded or otherwise conveyed to Premier Bourassa and/or the Quebec Liberal Party, and, if so, by what person or agency and to what person (c) what role does or did the Groupe Vidal, the Prime Minister's Office, candidates for the Liberal Party or any of them play in determining which group or groups, member or members of group(s) would or shall be investigated by an agent or agents of the RCMP, the Department of National Defence, the Police and Security Planning and Analysis Group or the former Security Planning and Research Group or any other security agency of government?

8. (a) Is or was Mr. Walter Luyendyk employed or serving as Assistant Secretary to the Cabinet Security and Intelligence Committee (b) if (a) is answered in the affirmative, why is it at all necessary to have a Police and Security Planning and Analysis Group, formerly Security Planning and Research Group in the Department of the Solicitor-General (c) was the subordination of the Security Planning and Research Group, now the Police and Security Planning and Analysis Group, to the Privy Council Office recommended by the recent crisis management study of Lt. General Michael Dare?

9(a) Since January, 1970, which organizations or groups, suspected or categorized as subversive are being or have been studied, investigated, observed, inquired into by the RCMP, the Armed Forces or the Police and Security Planning and Analysis Group, formerly the Security Planning and Research Group, of the Department of the Solicitor-General (b) do such organizations or groups include

7. (a) (b) (c) to be answered by PMO/PCO with emphasis on two basic points:

- Federalism task Force.
- RCMP have police channels for reporting information to Quebec.

8. (a) Mr. Walter Luyendyk is Assistant Secretary to the Cabinet (Security and Intelligence).

(b) The Privy Council Office provides Secretariats for the Cabinet and Cabinet Committees with associated responsibilities for interdepartmental coordination. The Solicitor General as Minister responsible for internal security matters requires a security advisory staff within his Departmental Headquarters structure.

(c) No.

9. (a) (b) (c) (d)

It is not in the interests of national security to disclose in detail the nature of the work of security authorities.