Dear Mr. Orr:

Thank you for your letter of August 27, 1981, concerning recommendations made by the McDonald Commission relating to sexual orientation, the security clearance process in the Government of Canada and, certain operational activities being carried out by the RCMP Security Service.

I wish to advise you that I have given instructions that the recommendations of the McDonald Commission dealing with the matters on which you have expressed concern are to be given immediate attention by my departmental officials. I expect their work to be completed within a month, at which time I would be prepared to make a public statement on this matter.

Thank you for writing to me on this subject.

Yours truly,
