Dear John:

I am writing further to my previous correspondence to you concerning the destruction of Security Service files on individuals.

In addition to the destruction of files opened prior to 1974 in the [redacted] "extract" category, referred to in my letter to you of April 6, 1984, I have now authorized the destruction of the following five additional categories:

- a) [redacted] Individual files on non-immigrants from countries of counter-intelligence interest applying for permission to enter Canada.
- b) [redacted] Individual files on proposed immigrants rejected under the provisions of the Immigration Act.
- c) [redacted] Individual files on those Canadians visiting countries of counter-intelligence interest who may come into contact with a foreign intelligence service.
- d) [redacted] Individuals known or suspected of having character weaknesses.
